NEWS NOTES.
POST-OFFICE APPROPRIATIONS—THE LASKER RESOLUTION—DANGEROUS SNAGS—PERSONALS.

[Special to the Courier-Journal.]
WASHINGTON, March 18.—The Senate will be called to order at 10 o'clock to-day to consider the Post-office Appropriation Bill as indicated in Mr. Horner's motion in the House to recommit the bill. The items are as follows: Post-office clerks, $4,000,000; railway mail service, $4,250,000; railway messengers, $1,000,000; mail bags, $250,000; rent account, $480,000; special steamboat service, $950,000; free delivery and letter carriers, $4,000,000. These are the estimates of the Post-office Department.

Ex-Gov. Curtin, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, made an effort to-day to present the committee's report on the Lasker resolutions, but was prevented by the interposition of the Post-office Appropriation Bill. The effort will be renewed to-morrow, and is likely to succeed.

Mr. Ochiltree, who is expected to have a great opportunity to-day, is likely to come to an adjustment in the patient house of having an opportunity to deliver it. It is said he has read it to all his friends here and made the trip to New York to read it to his cronies there, and that a failure to get it off on the floor of the House would break his heart.

The Whisky Bill was another measure introduced to-day. It is likely to come up to-morrow, though, and its friends are in fair hope of its success.

Frank Hopkins, Esq., President of the Evansville and Cincinnati Company, has written to Congressman Kleiser that a number of dangerous snags have been floated down and deposited in the Ohio between these two points by the late flood, and that the Government should be ordered to remove the obstructions.

Mr. Mack, of the Sandusky (O.) Register, is in the city.

Gen. Grant is at the Arlington Hotel. He is believed to be slightly better than at any time since his return from the Philippines, and is accompanied by Mrs. Grant, Col. Fred Grant and his wife, and Miss Bessie Sharp, of Yankton. They will remain in the city about three weeks.

When the Circuit Court met to-day Judge Hagner stated that he was not satisfied with the manner in which the jury selected to sit in the case of Kilbourn against ex-Sergeant-at-Arms Thompson had been impaneled, and discharged them from further consideration of the case. A new jury was selected, and the case went over to to-morrow.

Civil Service Commissioner Thomas will leave about April 10 to superintend examinations to be held at Texas and Alabama. These will be the first examinations held in that section of the country. Examinations will be held at Galveston April 15, Austin April 18, Dallas April 22 and Little Rock April 25.

There seems to be no doubt that Col. David S. Stanley, Twenty-second Infantry, will succeed Gen. Mackenzie as Brigadier-General.

It is learned at the Department of State that no telegram has been sent to the President in relation to his transfer to another post, as has been reported.

HAS HAD ENOUGH.

A STAR-BOY WITNESS WHO WANTS NO MORE OFFICE IN HIS.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—J. M. McGraw, formerly Sixth Auditor of the Treasury Department, whose duty it was to audit the expenses of the Post-office Department, was examined at his own request by the Springer committee to-day in relation to the Star-route investigation. He characterized as infamously false the alleged statement of Wm. Lilly, that he had paid the witness $4,000 to secure the expedition of services upon a certain route. McGraw also read a letter from Lilly, in which the latter denied ever having made the statement credited to him. McGraw said he resigned his position as Sixth Auditor, June 2, 1881, at the request of the President and Secretary Windom, the former saying he was embarrassed by the statements of McGraw and his associates, and the latter saying he was not prepared to proceed in the Star-route investigations while McGraw was Sixth Auditor. The witness said that he had been asked to resign by McGraw, but that he had refused to do so, and that he had been asked to resign by McGraw, but that he had refused to do so, and that he had been asked to resign by McGraw, but that he had refused to do so.

THE COMMITTEES.

ACTION TAKEN AND MATTERS CONSIDERED AT MEETINGS HELD YESTERDAY.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The House Committee on Judiciary held a favorable report on Mr. Tucker's bill limiting the time for the presentation of claims for back pay or bounty due officers, soldiers, or any other person for services in the late civil war or any previous war to three years from the passage of the act. The bill also provides that all other existing claims against the United States, excepting claims for pension, shall be presented within six years from the passage of the act. The committee reported the bill favorably.

The House Committee on Commerce has ordered a favorable report on the bill allowing persons or corporations to erect bridges across any navigable river in the United States or between the United States and any foreign country, provided free navigation is not materially injured.

The committee named Friday next as the day to consider retaliatory action when foreign countries prohibit the importation of American meats.

THE McPHERSON BANKING BILL.

THE PROBABILITY THAT THE BILL WILL BE REACHED BEFORE THE MIDDLE OF MAY, IF REACHED.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The friends of the McPheron Banking Bill in the House are of the opinion that the bill can not be reached before the middle of May, if at that time. An effort was made to be made yesterday, but the Committee on Banking and Currency had been called, to have a day designated for the consideration of the bill. The committee was not called, and no special order can be made until the third Monday in April, suspension day, without unanimous consent, and unanimous consent, it is thought, can not be obtained. If on the third Monday in April, under the suspension of the rules, a day is named for the consideration of the measure, it will probably be a late one, inasmuch as a number of prior special orders already occupy the calendar, while the Tariff Bill and the Banking and Currency measures may, by that time, be brought into antagonism with it.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION.

SENATOR LOGAN'S BILL TO INCREASE THE EFFICIENCY OF THE ARMY.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Senator Logan reported favorably to-day, with a number of amendments, from the Committee on Military Affairs, the bill introduced by him, entitled "A Bill to Increase the Efficiency of the Army of the United States." As introduced by Mr. Logan, the bill contained a provision limiting the number of enlisted men in the army to 30,000. This provision was stricken out in the committee. As otherwise amended, the bill provides for the increase of the monthly pay of non-commissioned officers and enlisted men from $2 per month in each case.

NOT A GOOD SCHEME.

SECRETARIES LINCOLN AND CHANDLER OPPOSE THE PROPOSITION TO DISCOVER THE GREY-LARK BY PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The President to-day transmitted to Congress a letter from Secretaries Lincoln and Chandler, opposing the proposition to offer a reward for the discovery and relief of Lieut. Greely's party by private enterprise. They think it will be inadvisable to offer an incentive to inadequately prepared private parties when the Government expedition is thoroughly equipped. Another reason urged against the proposition is that the Government, by inviting such co-operation, will assume a certain responsibility towards those whom it thus induces to enter on a hazardous enterprise, and its offers of to-day may lead to the necessity of further expeditions for relief or rescue hereafter.

THE JEANETTE EXPEDITION.

A SECOND INVESTIGATION STRONGLY OPPOSED BY SECRETARY CHANDLER.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Secretary Chandler has written a letter to Representative Cox, Chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, strongly opposing the second investigation of the Jeanette Arctic expedition.

He says that friends of Jerome Collins had every opportunity before the Court of Inquiry to ascertain the facts in the case and that in his opinion the proposed reopening of the case is highly inexpedient, and second that it is pitiless sacrilege to again tear open the graves of the dead for the purpose of indecently calling public attention to their deaths.

He says that the Court of Inquiry correctly termed "virtual difficulties such as occurred on the expedition" as "unavoidable circumstances," and which had no influence in bringing about the disasters to the expedition and had no pernicious effect upon its general conduct.

NOMINATIONS.

THE PRESIDENT NAMES A NUMBER OF SENATORS TO THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The President has made the following nominations:

Sumner Howard, Michigan, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona.

Case and Howard, Michigan, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho.

James D. Blair, Wyoming, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Wyoming.

Nat. Orville C. Babcock, to be Lieutenant Colonel of the Corps of Engineers.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, March 18.—A Russian dispatch says: The spirit of Osman Digma and some of his fanatical adherents is far from broken. He has returned with as many as 2,000 followers to the neighborhood of his former encampment. He adopts the same time in his intercourse with his people as before the last disaster, and is exhorting them to a religious war. He assures them that in the last battle success will be theirs, but the tribes are much demoralized as they reflect upon the last significant victory of the British. Osman does not hesitate to make use of stern measures toward any followers who show signs of disaffection. Two sheiks, who attempted to leave camp, have been placed in chains. Admiral Hewitt's proclamation, offering a reward for Osman's head, has reached the hands of the sheiks with him. They read it and spurned it with supreme contempt. Osman's scouts, to the number of 150, are watching close about Handoub. They are on the alert for any stragglers, whether English or of friendly tribes.

Marquis Hartington, War Secretary, has received the text of Admiral Hewitt's proclamation, offering £1,000 for Osman Digma's head, and has ordered it withdrawn in the most judicious manner possible. Marquis Hartington states this afternoon that he had received a dispatch from Admiral Hewitt explaining the reason for issuing the proclamation. He asserted that Osman had killed two of his lieutenants, and he therefore ordered the rebel chief to a murderer.

Bacteria tracheae from the muscle of man and parasites from skin diseases were beautifully shown under the microscope in hand. The students, of whom there was a goodly number present, were highly entertained. Dr. Stucky is a clear, entertaining speaker, and a painstaking as well as an enthusiastic student in the science of microscopy. His next lecture, Friday 8 p. m., on "Blood," will be illustrated by examination of the blood in disease and health. This institution is not only desirous of the cordial support of our citizens, but they are glad to know is beginning to receive support in a substantial way.

THE TOBACCO FAILURES.

But Very Little New Light Relative to the Collapse of the Pike and People's Tobacco Warehouses.

SUITS WITHOUT END.

The task of straightening out the affairs of D. K. Mason & Co. and Semmon & Co. was continued unceasingly yesterday, but no new developments were made. Nothing more definite is known now than three days ago. A large quantity of tobacco was removed from the Pike warehouse yesterday on writs of delivery. Mr. Harry Stucky was seen by a reporter, and he said: "I have been waiting a few minutes to make me think that my man is all right. On the very morning that he made his assignment, and I think after the deed was written, he paid a note of $4,600 that fell due in Mr. Harris' bank. He has not got a dollar left in the world, and it certainly speaks very well of him. If he could get out of jail I think he could explain away everything, and he ought to have an opportunity to do so."

Mr. Halsey, manager of the Fidelity Trust Company, could give no additional information relative to the affairs of Semmon & Co. A number of tobacco suits were filed; indeed the chief business of the courts for the past week has been in filing these tobacco suits.

R. M. Lewis sued the Fidelity Trust Company, assigns of Semmon, for four hogheads of tobacco, valued at $518 16, and also for $100 damages in detaining the tobacco and not turning it over to him.

Garth & Schroeder sued Semmon & Co. for four hogheads, worth $492 68.

John K. Smith sued D. K. Mason & Co., and Harry Stucky, assigns, for two hogheads, worth $250.

W. T. Grant & Co. sued D. K. Mason and Stucky for three hogheads which he had deposited with Mason, and which is now in the warehouse.

F. J. Plingst, John Doerflinger, Basil Doerflinger and Ed. F. Kessler sued the assigns of Semmon for one hoghead, worth $100 50.

R. M. Lewis sued Stucky and Mason for three hogheads, worth $450.

W. G. Anderson & Co. sued the Louisville Cotton Compress Company for twenty-four bales of cotton. Plaintiffs purchased the cotton from D. K. Mason, and the defendants obtained control of it. They claim $100 damages for the detention.

Joseph C. Gilligan sued Semmon and the Fidelity Trust Company for two hogheads, worth $150.

Rembrandt & Marks sued the Fidelity Trust Company for $100 for not delivering to them three hogheads of tobacco worth $177, purchased by D. K. Mason, and for which they hold warehouse receipts.

W. F. Johnson & Co. sued for an injunction to prevent the sale of the 21 hogheads of tobacco with which by Mason till their costs were paid and the court had decided to whom the tobacco should go.

Robert N. Irvine, on November 23, 1883, Irvine drew a bill of exchange on Semmon & Co. The note was discounted at the Falls City Bank.

H. M. CARR DEAD.

Death of a Well-known Citizen of Louisville. Col. H. M. Carr died at his residence in Portland yesterday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock. He had been in failing health for the past year, although his indomitable energy would not allow him to give up his position on account of it. On Thursday last he suffered from a congestive chill, brought on by fatigue and exposure while superintending some repairs on his beautiful home, which was somewhat damaged by the recent flood.

Col. Carr served as a Captain of volunteers in the well-known three months' corps, after which he entered the service for three years as a Captain, and was speedily promoted to the Colonelcy of his regiment for gallantry on the field of battle, afterward serving with distinction on the bloody fields fought by Gen. Buell, Rosecrans and Thomas until peace once more unfurled her banner over our troubled country.

Since the conclusion of the war he has carried on the business of pension claims in this city, and led a quiet domestic life, respected and esteemed by all who knew him. He possessed a mild, genial disposition, with a nature as tender and sensitive as a child, winning the hearts of all he met with his candor and good nature.

He leaves a wife, three daughters and a son, besides hosts of friends in this city and Indiana, to mourn his untimely demise. The funeral services will be given to-morrow.

THE COURIER.

The Masonic Savings Bank sued John H. Wood and G. D. Hamilton on a note of $170.

FRANK GOSNELL, a freight conductor on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago, yesterday sued the road for $10,000. He got his left arm crushed while coupling cars on the 23d of February, 1883, and was confined to bed for several months. His arm is permanently disabled.

The Fidelity Trust Co. trustees yesterday sued the city of Louisville and the Auditor's agent for some property which belongs to Michael and Helen Gowdy, Rodman L. and Frank G. Miller, and Wm. C. Clara, Bettie Miller, George Garland and George U. Rigdon and wife. It was sold under the provisions of the Auditor's agent.

The legal controversy over the wind and water facilities of Glasgow, Ky., between Fairbanks, Morse & Co. and the Waterworks Company of that place was continued in the United States Court yesterday.

Testimony for the defendant was being given, and much of the true inwardness of the business was being brought out. The company alleges that the wind-mill was a failure, and that the waterworks company was put in to supply the deficiency, creating an expense of $50 a month in lieu of the machine that was to have been fed on wind, and they demand $100,000. The arguments will begin this morning.

Jeffersonville Excited Over the Attempted Suicide of Thomas J. Gilligan, a Well Known Attorney.

NEW ALBANY LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Thomas J. Gilligan, a well-known and popular attorney, attempted suicide last evening in Jeffersonville by cutting his throat. Mr. Gilligan's office is at No. 55 Spring street, upstairs, in the rear part of the Caldwell block. He has a back room, the front one being occupied by "Squire Douglas, a Magistrate. About 5 o'clock, Mr. Gilligan entered the office of "Squire Douglas and sat in an arm-chair for a few minutes, when suddenly he pulled a penknife from his pocket and cut his throat, almost severing the windpipe. "Squire Douglas made an effort, as soon as he discovered his intent, to make him desist, and in so doing was severely cut on the hand, the wound being severely lacerated. Mr. Gilligan, who was determined not to be interfered with, Mr. Douglas called for help, and Messrs. Henry and John Stitt, who were in the office, came to his assistance, and the knife was taken from Gilligan's hand. He was bleeding profusely from the terrible wound inflicted, and was removed into his own office in the rear, where surgical attention was given him by Dr. J. M. and David McClure and Dr. Graham.

The physicians pronounce the wound a dangerous but not necessarily fatal one, and at 10 o'clock last night the patient was resting very well.

Mr. Gilligan resides at Watson, on the O. & M. railway, where he owns a country store, conducted by his relatives. It has been his custom to practice law in this city for a couple of years past, and he has been a member of the Falls Saving and Loan Association, receiving all the dues and keeping the books of the members. He has also been slightly engaged in other enterprises. His wife, who was sent for immediately, said to a reporter that her husband has not slept any for several nights and acted strangely when about home.

The officers of the Loan Association say his accounts are absolutely correct, and that if it is short at the end of the month, that it is not a couple of hundred dollars, which he could have raised at any time in a few seconds. Mr. Gilligan, who is a very capable and successful man, has been troubled for some time past by drinking too much, as he was not known to indulge to excess. In order to keep the books of the association, he was required to add to this, one of Mr. Gilligan's children recently died, his mother has been sick, and these many difficulties have caused him to become temporarily insane, and while in this condition he committed the deed.

He said to Mr. Stitt, when he lifted him up after the cutting, that he was either being robbed or was robbing somebody; he couldn't tell which from his head being dizzy, and he was in a dazed condition. The officers of the Loan Association have given every assurance to the stockholders that Mr. Gilligan's accounts are absolutely correct, and that if it is short at the end of the month, that it is not a couple of hundred dollars, which he could have raised at any time in a few seconds.
